

MASTER OF PUBLIC MANAGEMENT

PART-TIME COURSES BIG-TIME CAREER IMPACT

Heinz College's Master of Public Management (MPM) program combines our unique formula of analytics, technology, and leadership practice that you would find in any of our full-time management programs.

IS MPM RIGHT FOR ME?

- All classes meet once a week, in the evening
- Heinz College is #1 in Analytics Education
- Over 90% of students receive scholarship
- MPM cohorts are small, yet diverse
- 2 years to complete, part-time
- No GRE or GMAT required

MPM is designed with working professionals in mind. Your MPM cohort will be composed of fellow decision-makers from influential sectors, such as health care, education, finance, government, and non-profits.

Accelerate your current career path or pivot to a new focus or field. You will graduate from Heinz College with an analytical skillset that will set you apart in any organization.
